Handwritten signature or scribble.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is written in a fluid, connected style with prominent loops and flourishes. The ink is dark on a light background. The text is arranged in a single column, flowing from top to bottom. The script is highly stylized, characteristic of 18th or 19th-century cursive handwriting. The lines are closely spaced, and the overall appearance is that of a personal or official communication. The text is written in a single column, flowing from top to bottom.
